

Nothing plastic about this event

Actor Dia Mirza has been a champion of environmental causes. From taking part in cleaning drives at beaches in Mumbai to advocating for animal welfare rights, Mirza is also the UN Environment's Goodwill Ambassador for India.

So it was no surprise to see the actor and activist passionately discuss plastic pollution, in the Capital, recently, at an event, which was part of the World Environment Day celebrations. The event was attended by designer Rina Dhaka, politicos Udit Raj and Jual Oram, among others.

Every year, June 5 (today) is celebrated as the World Environment Day. And this year's theme is Beat Plastic Pollution. HTC
